
Wästbygg Group internally recruits Jessica Gårdmo as CFO

Jessica Gårdmo, who currently holds the position of Financial Manager at Logistic Contractor, a Wästbygg Group company, has been recruited to serve as CFO. She will succeed Jonas Jönehall, who will take over the position of CEO on 6 May, which was announced in a press release on 21 March.

Before joining Logistic Contractor in September 2020, Jessica was the head of accounting at Platzer Fastigheter. She also has extensive experience as authorized public accountant and authorized accounting consultant from the auditing firm PwC. Jessica has a master's degree in business from the University of Borås.

"It feels great to offer Jessica the position of CFO. She has extensive knowledge of our company and our industry, solid experience in finance and possesses the personal qualities required for the role, including a strong drive and good leadership skills. Having such qualified candidates in-house is truly a strength for the Wästbygg Group as a company and bodes well for the future," says Jonas Jönehall, CFO/Deputy CEO.

"I enjoy working for the company and look forward to continuing to develop our finance function and Group in my new role together with Jonas and the rest of the team. As an employee, I am proud to be part of a company that wants to be at the forefront of financial sustainability work. For example, we have our green framework that allows green labelling of both equity and debt instruments," says Jessica Gårdmo.

Jessica will take up the role of CFO for the Wästbygg Group and as a new member of Group Management on 6 May.
